

THE BASILDON ACADEMIES TRUST SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT MODEL

GOLD - RIGHTS RESPECTING

The Basildon Academies Trust

Our students are at the heart of everything we do.

Our Trust vision is ambitious for all. Strong leadership at all levels is critical to the success of our schools. Our Executive Leaders work with school leaders to ensure they are well-equipped to develop their schools successfully.

Decisions made in our schools are reflective of the wider vision of the Trust. Every Academy Development Plan has SMSC at the heart of it.

We invest in all our school leaders to ensure they have the right level of professional development to drive standards. We value expertise over experience; growing our own leaders and specialists.

Our wide range of central services ensure functions that distract leaders in schools from the core business of school improvement are taken care of.

Policies and processes provide leaders in schools with clear formats for improvement planning, performance management, quality assurance and self-evaluation. Our team of trust and school leaders provide the in-house central expertise to drive sustainable improvement.

Clear aligned leadership structures allow leaders to focus on their areas of accountability.

We support schools in promoting active parental and community programmes, delivering Leading Parent Partnership principles.

THE BA WAY: SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT

Our guiding principle for school improvement is to make the biggest difference to the life chances of students in our schools.

This model is used to drive continuous improvement, with all stakeholders understanding the important role they play in this process. Our operational model for delivering school improvement allows access to a range of in-house experts and central services.

Each school has its own identity, striving for success beyond circumstance for all, especially the most vulnerable.

This model identifies key improvement drivers and acts as a benchmark to measure progress. Its foundations provide guidance for leaders and as a result will drive school improvement through:

- High Expectations
- Quality First Teaching, Learning & Assessment
- Inclusive Pathways
- Trauma Perceptive Practice
- Relationships & Belonging
- UNICEF Rights Respecting Ambassadors
- Cultural Capital Curriculum
- Expertise over Experience

High Expectations

There is no limit to what our students can achieve.

All staff in our schools have high expectations for all students. Our staff are experts in our students, building strong positive relationships. Our schools ensure high expectations through the school experience for all learners:

- High quality learning environments
- High quality careers advice and guidance leading to a range of quality destinations
- Relentless attendance processes and policies to support reducing persistent absence and reflect a passion for learning

High Expectations

- Clear, consistent behaviour processes and policies that support staff, students and parents - The BA Way
- Dedicated non-teaching pastoral support teams
- Reasonable adjustments are wide and varied, considered for any learner who needs them and regularly monitored
- Accountability lines are clear, and staff discuss school improvement regularly in their areas of responsibility
- Unofficial exclusions, off rolling and elective home education do not reflect our Trust values
- All students can access our Key Stage 5 pathways - we aim to raise aspirations at every stage of learning
- Shared language of high expectations – life without labels

“Pupils appreciate the guidance and support that the school gives them to be the best they can be. As a result, there are positive relationships between staff and pupils. Pupils also get on well with each other.”

All children deserve success beyond circumstance.

Trauma Perceptive Practice

Trauma Perceptive Practice is the Essex approach to understanding behaviour and supporting emotional wellbeing. Through a TPP approach we create safe places where all can flourish and become resilient learners.

The trust is engaging in collaboration with the Essex Local Authority and Educational Psychology Service to provide best practice in a school's approach to Trauma Perceptive Practice.

We have linked the TPP values of kindness, compassion, hope, connection and belonging to the student values that underpin what we do as schools.

We know that if pupils have a consistent experience of feeling safe, cared for and respected then they will be able to develop the skills and systems to be to deal with difficult experiences.

Trauma Perceptive Practice

Our Academy Wellbeing Centres are a key component in this approach. These centres offer:

- Support for our students in times of need with issues such as anxiety, mental health, wellbeing, self-regulation, or bereavement
- Rolling programmes of external agency support available to all, including counsellors, the school nurse and small group support
- Small group interventions available for students identified as requiring a small group provision with a bespoke timetable
- Our student-centred support is designed to achieve the best possible outcomes and enable all to fulfil their potential

“Leaders have developed a well-being centre to help pupils with their mental and physical health. Pupils see this as a unique aspect of the school and are positive about the help they receive there.”

“Pupils learn about, and understand, the importance of respecting themselves and others. The personal, social and health education (PSHE) curriculum teaches pupils how to look after their physical and mental well-being. Pupils meet a range of employers and representatives from further education colleges. This helps pupils make well-informed choices about their next steps.”
